Global Economic News

US employment rose far less than expected in Dec amid worker shortages, and job gains could remain moderate in the near term as spiraling Covid-19 cases disrupt economic activity. But the Labor Department's closely watched employment report on 9 Jan suggested the jobs market was at or near maximum employment. The unemployment rate tumbled to a 22-month low of 3.9%, from 4.2% in Nov. The second straight big monthly decline occurred even as more people entered the labour force. Wages increased solidly, underscoring labour market tightness. (Reuters)

Euro zone inflation rose unexpectedly in Dec, likely making for more uncomfortable reading at the European Central Bank, which has consistently underestimated price pressures and come under fire for this from some of its own policymakers. Inflation in the 19 countries sharing the euro rose to 5% from 4.9% in Nov, a record high for the currency bloc and well ahead of analysts' expectation for 4.7%. (Reuters)

Taiwan's exports rose for an 18th straight month in Dec, though at a slightly lower rate than forecast, boosted by continued strong tech demand and amid a global shortage of computer chips. Exports in Dec were the second highest monthly figure on record, rising 23.4% from a year earlier to US$40.72bn (about RM171.39bn), the country's Ministry of Finance said on 7 Jan. (Reuters)

The Bantuan Keluarga Malaysia (Malaysian Family Assistance or BKM) programme is expected to benefit more than 9.6m recipients in 2022 with an allocation of RM8.2bn, said Finance Minister Tengku Datuk Seri Zafrul Tengku Abdul Aziz. This represents an increase from 8.6m recipients with an allocation of RM7bn under the Bantuan Prihatin Rakyat (BPR) initiative in 2021, he added. (Bernama)

More bad weather for the world's oilseed growers is pushing rapeseed and canola prices to fresh records and adding to food-inflation worries. Futures have been on a tear for a while, after last year's harvests in Canada and Europe were plagued by scorching drought and planting cutbacks, cutting global rapeseed stockpiles to a four-year low. Now, worries are mounting about supplies of rival vegetable oils, with hot and dry weather hurting South American soybean prospects and flooding hitting palm oil farms in Malaysia. (Bloomberg)

The Selangor government has approved an immediate allocation of over RM40m to rehabilitate and strengthen rivers, slopes, as well as road embankments affected by the floods that hit the state in Dec, said Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari. He said it was approved during the Selangor State Executive Council meeting on 6 Jan, adding that an allocation amounting to RM9.18m was also approved to fund 13 projects under the state Department of Irrigation and Drainage. (Bernama)

The government has introduced Keluarga Malaysia's automotive discount vouchers up to RM1,000 to flood victims for repair or replacement of private passenger vehicles including motorcycles, pickup trucks and vans, according to Finance Minister, Tengku Datuk Seri Zafrul Tengku Abdul Aziz. (Bernama)

The international reserves of Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) amounted to US$116.9bn (about RM491.86bn) as at 31 Dec 2021, up slightly from US$116.3bn as at 15 Dec 2021. The reserves level has taken into account the quarterly foreign exchange revaluation changes. In a statement on 7 Jan, the central bank said the reserves position is sufficient to finance 7.7 months of retained imports and is 1.2 times total short-term external debt. (The Edge Markets)

The General Insurance Association of Malaysia (PIAM) has set up a fund with a contribution of RM2.43m to alleviate the hardship faced by car owners whose vehicles were inundated by floods across the country recently. (The Edge Markets)

He said the payment covered the contribution for the purchase of essential goods amounting to RM2,500; vehicle repair discount; rebate of RM500 for the purchase of electrical goods and home repair assistance of between RM5,000 and RM15,000 for damage caused by the disaster. The approval process for the advertisement of Umrah packages has been suspended from 8 Jan, the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture (MOTAC) said in a statement on Sunday (9 Jan). This is because the flight date, which is a mandatory condition in the advertisement, could not be determined following the government's decision to temporarily suspend travel permission to perform Umrah effective 8 Jan, to curb the spread of the Covid-19 Omicron variant. Health Minister Khairy Jamaluddin in a press conference on 1 Jan said, the government had decided on the measure from 8 Jan, considering increasing Covid-19 positive cases among Umrah pilgrims. The suspension was following concerns that the spread of the variant was due to non-compliance with the home quarantine procedures among pilgrims and this had caused the infection to spread among family members. (Bernama)

He said on the other hand, the government's strategy to contain the pandemic was to implement mitigation strategies. (Bernama)

Malaysia cannot afford, in the economic and welfare aspects, to implement a lockdown to curb the spread of Covid-19, Health Minister Khairy Jamaluddin said. He said on the other hand, the government's strategy to contain the pandemic was to implement mitigation strategies. Political News

The controversy involving the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) Chief Commissioner Tan Sri Azam Baki's share ownership in two public-listed firms has blown up into a credibility crisis for both the graft buster and the government.

- The saga has seen a string of contradictions. MACC Anti-Corruption Advisory Board Chairperson Tan Sri Abu Zahar Ujang, who led the charge to "clear" Azam, ended up in hot water himself after six other members of the committee disputed him.
- The MACC leadership also came out in defence of Azam, declaring the allegations against him to be "politically motivated", even though Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob already said an investigation will be conducted.
- Perlis mufti Mohd Asri Zainul Abidin criticised them for defending Azam even before an investigation is concluded and called for the entire MACC leadership to be reviewed.
- The opposition has also complained that government members in the Parliamentary Special Select Committee for Agencies under the Prime Minister's Department were trying to block an investigation into the matter.
- Meanwhile, de facto Law Minister Datuk Seri Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar also defended Azam, claiming his share of around 1m units in Gets Global Bhd is only worth around RM330,000 which he described as "affordable". However, Azam has not admitted to being the beneficial owner of the stocks, claiming that his brother had bought them in his name.
- According to whistleblower reports, Azam had 1.9m shares in Gets Global on 30 Apr 2015 worth around RM772,000 at the time. His shareholding went down to 1m as of 31 Mar 2016, worth around RM340,000 at the time.
- A defiant Azam vowed to fight the allegations against him and refused to go on leave. (Malaysiakini)

Whistleblower K Lalitha, who wrote about the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) Chief Commissioner Tan Sri Azam Baki's share ownership, spoke up through her lawyer and stood by her reports which Azam has threatened with an RM10 million lawsuit.

- Her lawyer also criticised the MACC for lodging a police report against her and trying to get cops to probe her, calling it misplaced as even the prime minister announced an investigation into Azam.
- Graft watchdog Center to Combat Corruption and Cronyism (C4) also lambasted the MACC for going after whistleblowers when it should be protecting them.
- Both the Malaysian Chinese Association (MCA) and the Democratic Action Party (DAP) have offered their legal services to help Lalitha against Azam's lawsuit. (Malaysiakini)

Speculations of a split in Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia involving those who joined the party after the Sheraton Move in 2020 intensified as several of them defected to Parti Bangsa Malaysia (PBM).

- Among them include Tronoh assemblyperson Paul Yong and Buntong assemblyperson A Sivasubramaniam who defected from DAP to Bersatu but have now joined PBM.
- Several key ex-PKR figures who are key lieutenants to Bersatu Supreme Council members Datuk Seri Azmin Ali and Datuk Seri Zuraida Kamaruddin, such as Nor Hizwan Ahmad, Zakaria Abdul Hamid, Haniza Mohamed Talha and Daroyah Alwi, also joined PBM's leadership.
- While the exodus among the grassroots has begun, the head honchos are still remaining in Bersatu and have yet to pull the trigger.
- PBM has positioned itself as pro-Barisan Nasional (BN) rather than pro-Perikatan Nasional (PN). This does not bode well for Bersatu, which will be leading PN in a possible clash with the United Malays National Organisation's (UMNO) BN in the coming general election, even though both are currently part of the federal government. Malaysia is on track to become the worst country in the world unless its custodians change how they conduct themselves in leading the nation, said former Perlis menteri besar Tan Sri Dr Abdul Hamid Pawanteh.

- He said the ills – from healthcare, to the economy and politics – afflicting the country will worsen unless a determined sense of change takes place soon.
- He blamed it on the education system, which has failed to produce the right type of leaders for the new age of globalisation and emergence of great threats, such as Covid-19. (The Vibes)

Most consumers managed to maintain their credit repayments over the last two Covid-19 impacted years, according to the Experian state of credit 2021 report. Individual credit worthiness saw a slight lift with the average credit score rising 18 points from 601 in 2019, prior to the Covid-19 pandemic, to 619 in 2021 in Malaysia. This is the highest average i-SCORE over the last four years.

- The scoring is normally used by lenders to find out the creditworthiness of an individual before approving or rejecting a loan application. The percentage of individuals with 90 days past due (DPD) date for credit payment decreased by 0.7% from 2.5% in 2018 to 1.8% in 2021.
- Those aged 22 to 28 years have the highest average DPD across all four years but showed a decrease from 6.2% to 3.8%, according to the report. However, it adds that young adults have been struggling more than the other age groups during the pandemic. This is so since they are in their early stages of their careers with more modest income and savings compared with their older peers. Unemployment had also struck this segment particularly hard over the past two years.
- But the government's intervention, through loan moratoriums and other support measures, may have contributed positively besides behavioural changes among Malaysians towards conservative spending during the challenging economic climate, it says. (Starbiz)
