What's on the Table...

Affin Bank Berhad – Time to take profit

We downgrade our Affin Bank call from Add to Reduce as we expect a slowdown in loan growth in FY24F; it is also trading at rich valuations. Affin's CY24F P/E of 10.6x is now above the sector average of 9.9x and the second highest in the sector (only behind Public Bank's 11.2x). The emergence of SSFS as a key shareholder could catalyse its growth in Sarawak but we expect this to take time (over 1 year) to materialise.

Trendspotter – MY- REDtone Digital (0032) (Technical Buy, 0.835): At an 18-year high

The stock pushed through to a new 18-year high yesterday on the back of a pick-up in trading volume (4x above the 15-day average). The rally also took out the November high as well, putting the stock on course for further upside in the coming days. The rising EMAs are supportive of the current uptrend.

The US is "within striking distance" of the Federal Reserve's 2% inflation goal, but the central bank should not rush towards cuts in its benchmark interest rate until it is clear lower inflation will be sustained, Fed governor Christopher Waller said. (Reuters)

Germany's 10-year bond yield, the benchmark for the euro zone, rose to a one-month high after central bankers pushed back against market expectations of rapid interest rate cuts this year. The 10-year yield, which moves inversely to the price, hit 2.273% in early European trading, the highest since Dec 11. It was last up five basis points (bps) at 2.261%. (Reuters)

UNCTAD attributed this slight increase to higher investment in some European countries. (Reuters)

UK inflation picked up unexpectedly for the first time in 10 months, prompting traders to scale back their expectations for rate cuts from the Bank of England (BOE) this year. The consumer prices index (CPI) rose 4% from a year earlier in December, up from a 3.9% rise the previous month, the Office for National Statistics (ONS) said. (Bloomberg)
